HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
151st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 18

REAFFIRMING THE SISTER-STATE PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN THE STATE OF DELAWARE AND TAIWAN AND SUPPORTING THE STRENGTHENING OF BILATERAL TRADE RELATIONS WITH TAIWAN, THE SIGNING OF A BILATERAL TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND TAIWAN, AND TAIWAN'S PARTICIPATION IN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS.

1 WHEREAS, the Republic of China ("Taiwan") and the United States have enjoyed a longstanding partnership and 2 share the common values of freedom, democracy, and human rights. In 2021, Taiwan was ranked as the second freest country
3 in Asia by Freedom House and ranked sixth among 184 world economies in terms of economic freedom by the 4 Heritage Foundation, demonstrating the strength and vitality of its democratic system and showcasing Taiwan as a 5 beacon of democracy in the world; and

6 WHEREAS, the State of Delaware is proud of the sister-state relationship it has enjoyed with Taiwan since 7 September 12, 2000, marked by strong bilateral trade, education, and cultural exchange; and

8 WHEREAS, the United States and Taiwan have forged ever closer economic and security relations over the last 4
9 decades based on their shared commitment to democracy, the rule of law, and free market principles; with the United States
10 now Taiwan's second-largest trading partner and second-largest destination of Taiwan's outward investment, and Taiwan is 11 the ninth largest trading partner of the United States and a key destination for United States agricultural exports; and

12 WHEREAS, in 2020, the bilateral trade between Delaware and Taiwan amounted to nearly $237 million, making 13 Taiwan Delaware's eighth largest exporting trading partner globally and fifth-largest importing trading partner in Asia, 14 demonstrating that Taiwan is not only a friendly sister-state of Delaware but also an important economic partner; and

15 WHEREAS, in the 2019 through 2020 academic year, 23,724 students from Taiwan studied in the United States,
16 making Taiwan the seventh-leading place of origin for students coming to the United States and these students contributed
17 more than $991 million to the United States' economy through their spending on tuition, accommodations, and living 18 expenses; and

19 WHEREAS, Taiwan has effectively contained the spread of COVID-19 by providing open and transparent
20 information and Taiwan's model of COVID-19 prevention has become an internationally recognized paradigm for effectively 21 containing the spread of the pandemic; and

22 WHEREAS, in 2020, Taiwan donated 80,000 surgical face masks to the State of Delaware to protect frontline health 23 workers, demonstrating that Taiwan stands strong with Delaware in difficult times; and

24 WHEREAS, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Taiwan gifted 600 isolation gowns to the Delaware Health Care
25 Facilities Association for Delaware's long-term care community through the Sister Cities program; and

26 WHEREAS, in 2021, the State of Delaware celebrates the 21st anniversary of the sister-state partnership with 27 Taiwan and looks forward to an even closer relationship between Delaware and Taiwan in the future; and

28 WHEREAS, Delaware welcomes all opportunities for an even closer economic partnership to increase trade and 29 investment, supports Taiwan's effort to secure the signing of a United States-Taiwan Bilateral Trade Agreement to boost

30 Delaware exports to Taiwan, and supports re-opening a trade office in Taiwan to bring more Taiwanese investment 31 to Delaware; and

32 WHEREAS, Taiwan has proven to be a very valuable contributor in a broad range of global issues, and Taiwan
33 should be granted access to meaningfully participate in various international organizations including the World Health
34 Organization, International Civil Aviation Organization, United Nation Framework Convention on Climate Change, and 35 International Criminal Police Organization.

36 NOW, THEREFORE:

37 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of the 151st General Assembly of the State of Delaware that the House supports
38 Taiwan's efforts to secure the signing of a Bilateral Trade Agreement with the United States; commends Taiwan's vibrant
39 full-fledged democracy; celebrates the 21st anniversary of sister-state ties between Taiwan and the State of Delaware;
40 reaffirms the House's commitment to strengthening and deepening the sister-state partnership between the State of Delaware
41 and Taiwan; continues to support Taiwan's meaningful participation and contribution in international organizations which 42 impact the health, safety, and well-being of its people; and supports Taiwan's aspiration to make more 43 contributions in the international community.

44 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the House send a copy of this Resolution to Governor John 45 Carney and another copy to Ms. Bi-khim Hsiao, Representative of the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office
46 in the United States.

SYNOPSIS

This House Resolution celebrates the 21st anniversary of the sister-state partnership between the State of Delaware and Taiwan and supports the strengthening of bilateral trade relations with Taiwan, the signing of a bilateral trade agreement between the United States and Taiwan, and Taiwan's meaningful participation in and contribution to international organizations.
